Griffin Calls Gus Scholle Williams' Political Boss; Scranton Lauds Romney

By The Associated Press
Gov. George Romney "will be a public figure of the greatest rank" in a couple of years, predicts Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania.

Romney, often mentioned as a contender for Republican presidential nomination in 1968, heard Scranton praise him before an estimated 800 persons attending a dinner honoring Sen. Robert P. Griffin at Lansing Wednesday night.

Few hours earlier, Scranton declined to comment on the 1968 presidential race. But he departed from a prepared speech later to make his prediction about the Michigan governor.

Ford Praised
Rep. Gerald R. Ford, R-Mich., House minority leader, told the audience Romney was "the finest governor in a good many years—if not in the history of the United States."

Scranton said he and Romney discussed the National Republican Governors Association and "world problems" in a 45-minute, private meeting Wednesday.

Scranton, who last visited Michigan's capital in 1964 when he was a candidate for GOP presidential nomination, lauded Griffin's record as a congressman for 16 years and his five-month record as a senator.

Griffin launched one of his sharpest attacks of the campaign on G. Mennen Williams, his Democratic opponent for election to the Senate.

Debate Challenge
Though he mentioned Williams by name only once, Griffin four times named August Scholle, state AFL-CIO president, describing him as the "political boss" of the former six-term governor.

Griffin challenged Williams to debate and to speak out on how he would have voted on the Scholle-Griffin bill.

He called for Williams to speak out on the "credibility gap," described by Griffin as a loss of confidence by the people in what the government has told them about involvement in Viet Nam.

He said President Johnson has called for a cutback in student college loans and opposes tax relief for parents of college students.

On those issues, "Where does my opponent stand?" Griffin asked. "With me or with Mr. Johnson?"

The Williams campaign, meanwhile, got a boost today from Vice President Hubert Humphrey.

Humphrey Tears
Humphrey scheduled a day-long tour with Williams, Democratic gubernatorial candidate Zolton Ferency and U. S. Rep. Weston Vivian, D-Mich.

The vice president's visit came against the background of President Johnson's Labor Day speech.

visit to Detroit, when Johnson failed to mention Williams' name during an appearance before AFL-CIO members.

Included on Humphrey's agenda were a lunch and dedication of a library in Monroe and a speech at a $100-a-couple dinner in Detroit.

Williams, who toured West Michigan Wednesday, was asked on a television program about speculation whether his health would permit him to serve out a full, six-year term if elected to the Senate.

The former governor, who underwent a kidney stone operation in August, said "that's a lot of nonsense." He said his doctor believes that his recovery from the surgery has been remarkable.

Cites Tax Issue
Ferency Wednesday accused Romney of avoiding what he said was the issue of tax reform for Michigan.

The Democratic state chairman displayed a folder appealing for volunteers in a women's Republican campaign organization.

Recruits were asked to "continue Michigan's great progress" in five fields, including "fiscal responsibility essential to meeting people's needs... without new taxes."

Ferency charged that "after two years in a row of submitting deficit budgets, now he (Romney) is suggesting the state needs no new revenues."

A spokesman for Romney said the wording in the WOW (Women Out Working) folder "referred not to what the governor is going to do but what has been accomplished. He has openly acknowledged the need for fiscal reform and has said he will press for it."

Marines Clear Ridge; 66 Cong Give Selves Up

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A unit of 66 Viet Cong soldiers surrendered on a ridge today as American, Korean and South Vietnamese forces closed in on an encircled, fragmented Communist force on the central coast.

The wholesale surrender raised to about 300 the number of prisoners taken by the combined allied force in five days of operation. It was probably the war's biggest bag of prisoners, and in addition the allied forces claimed nearly 550 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong killed in the pincer operation north of Qui Nhon.

To the north just below the demilitarized zone, U.S. Marines braved a hail of Communist grenades and waded in ankle-deep mud Wednesday to capture the last hill along a four-mile ridge they had been clearing of North Vietnamese for 15 days.

Shells Fall Short
Marine casualties were described as light, but three 90mm tank shells fired in support of the Leathernecks fell short, killing three Marines and wounding seven others in the base camp for the operation.

The Marine operations below the demilitarized zone for the second time in two weeks pushed American combat casualties last week above those of South Vietnamese forces although American losses were less than the week before.

The U.S. reported 400 Americans were killed and 642 wounded during the week that ended last Saturday, compared with 87 killed and 288 wounded reported by the South Vietnamese. Other allied forces reported 16 men killed and 48 wounded, nearly double the toll the week before.

Casualties Listed
Enemy losses reported were also down, 1,104 killed last week compared with 1,208 the previous week.

The casualties last week brought the total number of Americans reported killed in the war to 8,401 and the wounded to 20,014. Totals reported for the year include 3,523 Americans killed, 6,859 South Vietnamese killed and 40,149 enemy dead.

The coastal campaign, Operation Irving, has become one of the most successful drives of the war.

Simkin in a separate meeting that the union considers it "critical" to win its demands for a bigger cost of living wage offer, improved methods to solve grievances and raising lower wage differentials in General Electric's southern plants.

Simkin scheduled further separate talks with both sides today.

A special panel of three Cabinet members appointed by President Johnson to help try to solve the deadlocked negotiations remained in the background.

There had been some hints that the trio—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz and Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor—might talk to a joint meeting.

DETROIT (AP)—A 21-year-old burglary suspect was fatally shot by a pursuing police officer early Wednesday at the scene of a gasoline station break-in on the East Side.

Dead is Eddie Saunders of Detroit. Police said he died of a gunshot wound in the head two hours after he was hospitalized.

Manila Conference Trip Expanded:
Johnson To Make Major Asian Tour

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson is expanding his trip to the Manila conference into a major Asian tour with visits to New Zealand, Australia, Thailand, Malaysia and South Korea, as well as the Philippines.

Johnson's plans were disclosed today by government officials. There was no immediate word from the White House, but the President scheduled an afternoon news conference that was expected to bring his confirmation of the announcements from abroad.

The news conference was set for 3 p.m. EDT.

The official visits to the five nations will be sandwiched around the Oct. 21-25 Manila meeting of chiefs of state of the seven countries with troops fighting Communists in South Viet Nam.

Johnson plans to visit New Zealand Oct. 18-20 and then fly to Australia, before attending the Manila meeting. New Zealand Prime Minister Keith J. Holyoake announced in Wellington.

In Seoul, President Chung Hee Park's secretary said Johnson would spend three days in South Korea, Oct. 31-Nov. 2.

The White House obviously was showing deference to desires of other Pacific nations to have the privilege of announcing visits from the American president. Australian newspapers today were displaying stories that Canberra expected a Johnson call.

The additional stops on the swing into the Pacific are expected to be more in the nature of goodwill missions than business calls. The business will come at Manila, mainly.

Philippines President Ferdinand E. Marcos disclosed in a Honolulu speech Sept. 26 that he had invited the chiefs of state of the United States, Australia, New Zealand, South Korea, South Viet Nam and Thailand to meet with him in Manila to "review the prospects for a peaceful settlement of the conflict" in Viet Nam.

Some 1,300 workers left their jobs in the four cities to protest the proposed three-year contract, which was signed by international officers of the CWA despite objections from local officials elected to the bargaining committee.

US Seeks Neutralization Of Viet Nam Border Zone

Senators Ask Greater Patrol To Limit War

WASHINGTON (AP)—A halt in U. S. bombing aimed at restoring a neutral zone between North and South Viet Nam brought "senatorial proposals today for expanded international patrols to limit the war."

Secretary of State Dean Rusk said in New York Wednesday that air attacks on the eastern part of the buffer area had been suspended. The White House previously described this as an effort to permit the International Control Commission to investigate alleged violations of the area.

In Saigon, reliable sources reported U. S. and Vietnamese planes halted bombing of a 24-mile-square area of the demilitarized zone 10 days ago so commission teams could carry out inspections.

"We would like to see that zone fully demilitarized again," Rusk said. "If the North Vietnamese will stop using the zone for a purpose for which it was not intended."

Senators Lead Action
Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield was joined by Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, in applauding this action. Both have opposed escalation of the war.

The two Democrats proposed in separate interviews that control commission patrols be beefed up and their operations expanded to cover South Viet Nam's borders with Cambodia and Laos.

"It is quite possible that if the International Control Commission were given sufficient personnel and its responsibilities strengthened that it could become an effective force toward limiting the war and opening the way to peace negotiations," Mansfield said.

Fulbright said he didn't want to raise any false hopes of what might be accomplished, but he favored expanding the patrols.

Canada, India and Poland are members of the international commission set up after the 1954 Geneva Conference to police the demilitarized area between North and South Viet Nam agreed upon at that meeting.

In Ottawa it was said that patrols carried out in the 35 mile long, 8 mile wide zone by two teams of two Canadian officers, two Indians and two Poles were resuming in the eastern segment.

These inspection journeys had been suspended this summer when the United States started bombing staging areas and ammunition dumps the North Vietnamese had set up in the zone to infiltrate troops into South Viet Nam.

The South Vietnamese government reportedly ordered a cessation of all bombing and military activity Sept. 27 in the area of the buffer zone east of Route 1, which is four miles west of the South China Sea.

North Viet Nam reportedly refused permission for control commission teams to inspect the Communist side of the zone.

State To Again Ask Ruby Death

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Dist. Atty. Henry Wade says the state will seek the death penalty again for Jack Ruby, whose conviction for killing presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald was set aside Wednesday.

Wade said he intends to file a motion for rehearing by Oct. 20, asking the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals to change its mind and uphold Ruby's murder conviction.

The court, the highest in Texas for criminal matters, ruled that Ruby did not get a fair trial. It reversed the conviction and ordered a new trial, to be held outside Dallas County.

The main reason cited by the Austin court in its decision was that the trial court erred when it allowed testimony by Dallas Police Sgt. P. T. Dean about what Ruby said some 1 to 40 minutes after Oswald was shot in the Dallas police station basement.

Doctors Probe Infant Deaths

WASHINGTON (AP)—Doctors are launching an intensive new probe of the mysterious, nameless disease that kills thousands of apparently healthy babies each year.

The year-long project by a six-physician research team here is aimed at what is known as the "sudden infant death syndrome."

The condition has no medical name, but the Public Health Service rates it as one of the top killers of infants with between 10,000 and 20,000 victims annually in the United States and thousands more in other countries.

Dr. James R. Patrick, 33, chief pathologist at the District of Columbia Children's Hospital, heads the research team. He said he believes a combination of factors may make certain infants more susceptible than others to the disease.

Patrick's team will be looking, among other things, for any special viruses or combination of viruses that might prove fatal to infants.

Phone Workers Vote To Strike

LANSING (AP)—The state director of the Communications Workers of America said today it appears most locals are voting in favor of a strike, if needed, to win contract improvements from Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

"I do not have the complete total of the locals in so far as" said Michigan CWA director Herman Ebelton. "But I've seen some isolated returns and there is no doubt about the outcome of the strike vote."

Since last week, locals of the CWA have been conducting secret ballot strike votes.

In the meantime, wildcat strikes hit Michigan Bell at Lansing, Pontiac, Flint and Wyandotte in the wake of an announced contract agreement Wednesday.

Some 1,300 workers left their jobs in the four cities to protest the proposed three-year contract, which was signed by international officers of the CWA despite objections from local officials elected to the bargaining committee.

INez Swipes At Cuba; Crossing Gulf Of Mexico

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Glancing off Cuba, where she claimed three more victims, Hurricane Inez roared on across the Gulf of Mexico today toward a possible collision with the Yucatan Peninsula, ancient home of the Maya Indians.

Forecasters said Inez, in the 13th day of her tempestuous travels through the Western Hemisphere, might crawl along the north coast of the peninsula, hurling 110-mile-an-hour winds inland over the dense tropic jungles.

Or she might strike inland, through the ruins of a remarkable Mayan civilization built shortly after the death of Christ, to reach the important city of Merida, with its 170,000 residents.

With one last vicious blow at Cuba, Inez damaged the tobacco crop, source of Havana cigars. In her earlier sweep across the eastern part of the Communist island, she had laid waste to sugar fields.

On the northwest coast, as the storm passed Wednesday night, Havana Radio said two persons were electrocuted and another drowned, bringing the storm's announced death toll in Cuba to four. Hundreds were injured during her previous visit.

Inez is known to have killed more than 150 persons in the Caribbean and possibly many more in Haiti.

Today's Chuckle
Clothes do not make the man, but a good suit has often made a lawyer.

OUTLINED ON map is the demilitarized zone in Viet Nam. Reports from Canes said no American bombing operations are being conducted in the eastern sector of the zone presently and tied this to an effort to scale down military operations there as a possible approach to peace. White House press secretary Bill Moyers acknowledged the lull but said it was done to allow an International Control Commission investigation of alleged Geneva treaty violations. (AP Wirephoto)

Bridge Traffic Record Is Set

Both Mackinac Bridge traffic and revenues for September bounced back into the record-breaking columns as vehicle crossings increased 10.2 per cent and dollar income went up 9.7 per cent, according to Bridge Authority Chairman Prentiss M. Brown in his monthly report of bridge statistics.

"The current year should turn out to be our best, with both traffic and revenues exceeding the 1958 record of 1,390,390 crossings and $5,132,958 of revenues. That was the first full year of operation and a great number of curiosity crossers were attracted," said Chairman Brown.

"Although traffic did not fulfill the estimates of the traffic engineering consultants upon whose predictions the bridge was financed, revenues have always exceeded actual obligations."

"The building up of sinking funds to a total of more than $12.5 million has delayed bond redemption. Now that these funds are on the verge of being filled, bond redemption should be carried out at a fairly substantial rate," said Brown.

September traffic was up 10.2 per cent from 146,509 crossings to 161,401. Revenues went up 9.7 per cent from $625,465 to $686,406. For the first nine months of 1966 traffic was up 7.7 per cent from 1,073,186 to 1,155,313 vehicles. Revenues increased 7.9 per cent from $4,875,708 to $5,047,153.

Doctors Park Building Announced

Five Escanaba doctors of medicine and dentistry today announced that they had contracted for construction of a Doctors Park building to house professional offices and a pharmacy on a private road off 5th Ave. S., just south of the Escanaba Area High School campus.

Construction of the big professional offices building by Marshall-Erdman Associates of Madison, Wis., will be started at once and the building will be ready for occupancy next spring.

The partners in the enterprise are two family physicians, Drs. Donald N. Fitch, and Raymond L. Hockstad, and three dentists, Drs. Edward Kuivinen, Byron Zeni and Roger Beauchamp.

Construction is being financed locally through a bank combine involving all three Escanaba banks.

The Doctors Park Pharmacy in the building will be owned and operated by Richard Pryal, independent of his Goodman Drug Store.

The Doctors Park building will have from 6 to 8 more suites of professional offices available to practitioners in the health sciences, besides the individual private practices of the three dentists in separate suites and the group practice of the two family physicians. These available offices will be offered in either separate individual suites or in the medical suite in group practice with the physicians.

The property is nearly four acres and the building will be 160 x 60 feet, a two story split level structure finished in brick and redwood. There will be a central lobby in each floor and each floor will have ground access. The two story elevation will be on the east, facing 23rd St., and the one story elevation will face west. The building will be in the southeast corner of the property, which is west of Emmanuel Lutheran Church, and which is bounded on the west by 26th St. Parking space for 100 cars will be provided about the building.

Ruppe Attacks Poverty Salaries

Philip Ruppe, Republican nominee for Congress in the 11th District, said he was "shocked" by his opponent's vote last Thursday against limiting the number of $20,075 and higher paid jobs for poverty personnel. Ruppe was referring to an amendment to the poverty bill to limit $20,075 — $25,880 salaries to not more than 1 in 100 poverty office workers. Congressman Raymond Clevenger opposed the amendment and voted against it when it came before the House of Representatives on Sept. 29, said Ruppe.

"Fortunately, the amendment passed," Ruppe said. "My opponent was one of the minority voting against limiting the number of scandalously high salaries in the poverty program."

"I will support realistic programs that actually attack poverty," Ruppe said. "But I'm sick and tired of the way the present program feeds taxpayers dollars into the pockets of highly paid political appointees. This doesn't do much to solve hard core poverty, but it does feather the political nests of a lot of politicians."

Young Archers Both Bag Deer On Same Day

Two Green Bay young men filled their bow and arrow licenses while hunting in the Helps area of northern Menominee County on Wednesday.

They are Peter Hillesheim of 720 Irvington, Green Bay, and John Van Liershout, 1426 East Mason, Green Bay. Both bagged deer weighing about 100 pounds each.

Peter has hunted for 12 years with bow and arrow and has bagged 11 deer; John has hunted for two years and brought down a deer each season.

Mead Offering Science Awards

Local high school students will again have the opportunity to compete for a $1,000 college scholarship and several cash awards in a Mead Corp. science essay contest, George S. Douglas, Mead's Escanaba Division manager announces.

Essays in chemistry, biology and physics will be accepted up to Feb. 15. High school sophomores, juniors and seniors in all of the Delta County area are eligible. Research papers and descriptions of the student science projects, including techniques employed, results, etc., will be accepted.

"Our primary purpose in sponsoring this project is to develop greater interest in the career opportunities science offers," Douglas stated. "We had exceptionally good essays in last year's competition. Officials of Ohio University, who selected the national winners told us they were greatly impressed."

First, second and third awards of $25, $15 and $10 will be made in each of the three major categories.

Each first-prize winning essay will be entered in competition with those from students in 11 other Mead communities. The best essays in each category will receive a $100 cash award.

The best overall science essay will be selected from among the three corporate-wide winners, and its author will receive the $1,000 scholarship.

Local prize winners will be announced in March 1967. Local high schools have been supplied with rules and additional copies are available through the office of Robert E. Barron at the Mead Corp.

The Upper Michigan Tourist Association's Advisory Committee will hold its final meeting next Tuesday at the Northwoods Supper Club near Marquette. In addition to members of the committee, Chairman Jim Gooch has invited UMTA's current officers and several past presidents. They will review the recommendations which the committee has been developing over the last four months.

The Advisory Committee's complete report will then be presented by W. H. Treloar, publisher of the U.P. Panax Newspapers, at the tourist association's annual meeting which is scheduled for Oct. 24-25 at Indianhead Mountain Lodge near Wakefield.

Gooch, regional director for Michigan State University's Continuing Education Service, says, "Our committee will suggest some firm guidelines and policies for the organization. We hope this framework for future development will encourage a large segment of Upper Peninsula citizens to involve themselves in planning and supporting a growing recreation industry."

"We also hope it will create a theater for deliberations and decisions that will be strongly oriented towards the future and not based on past horizons and experiences."

Farming For Sonny?

E. Dale Ball, director of the Michigan Department of Agriculture, was asked at a meeting of the Michigan Commission of Agriculture Monday at Marquette about the future of farming in the state.

He took an optimistic view of it, despite its obvious troubles of the moment. He thought that higher prices for farm produce in the future would make agriculture more attractive as a career.

This view represents the professional outlook on a major industry by one of its leaders, charged with making it flourish. It also represents the personal conviction of Ball, but he got some flak on his statement from members of his commission.

When he was asked if he thought that there are factors in farm decline besides economics — if farmers were quitting farming for more reasons than poor pay — Ball said that he thought basically it was because a farmer could do better buying a dinnerpail and working in a factory than he could buying a tractor and working the soil. But this is going to change, he suggested: people are going to have to pay more for their food because they're not paying what it's worth now in relationship to other commodity costs.

"I don't think that agriculture is unattractive," said Ball "if the profits are right. A lot of people like to farm."

Commissioner Walter Lange of Sebawaing said that land in his area was selling for as much as $800 to $1,000 an acre, which would make an 80-acre farm worth $80,000. "It is financially impossible to make a profit on a farm that costs that much," said Lange "if a farmer were starting from scratch. Farming may be attractive, but it's impossible."

Commissioner Rebecca Tompkins, who helps her husband operate a fruit farm at Old Mission, said "It's hard to encourage young people to work in agriculture when they don't get paid vacations or the kind of income they do in industrial jobs."

Banker Herbert Corey of Stephenson suggested that the farmer is coming to a corporate type of financing in which he will finance his operations (debt) on a continuing basis tied to his capacity to produce. He would thus consider financing as a direct cost of doing business, like the industrialist.

Commission Chairman Blaque C. Knirk of Quincy agreed that financing is going to be a cost-of-production consideration for farmers for a long time to come and "if that stops they're not going to be farmers, they're going to be bankers."

Michigan Milk Producers Association reports that dairy farmers continue to quit the business although milk prices have risen substantially in the past year. There will come a point in the process of farm produce price adjustment, of course, which will make farming attractive again. Whether this break point will bring in industrial type farming to replace our familiar family type farms remains to be seen.

But the farm surpluses are going, the need for production incentives is beginning to be suggested, and there seems to be no question that the housewife who complains about the price of food in the supermarket hasn't really begun to pay for it yet under the Johnson Administration's "new economics."

The farmer is going to buy a dinner pail instead of a tractor and get a job and paid vacations unless his earnings on the farm are somewhat comparable. We have arrived at a position where a farmer cannot possibly buy a farm at going prices, finance his operations with available loans, and make a profit. That means that farm produce prices are phony. The farmer is the first to find it out when he tries to buy an automobile or a tractor with what he gets for his crops. So there'll be some changes made.

Tax-Loss, Aspirin For Financial Headaches

By JOHN CUNNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) — The day of reckoning here for a speculative binge in stocks that went sour this year, and ironically, many losers are seeking in the tax laws an aspirin for their financial headaches.

The federal income tax laws permit you to deduct as much as $1,000 in stock losses from your reportable income. Furthermore, additional losses may be carried over and subtracted next year.

Paper losses don't count. The end of 1966 if it is to be reported in the forms you file on or before next April 15.

Decide To Sell
Buffeted by a tumult of opinions throughout the year, some small investors finally have arrived at a simple, clear decision to sell.

Such a decision sometimes is unfortunate, since it is based on a feeling of necessity rather than on an analysis of market factors. Tax-loss selling is, nevertheless, a recognized practice on Wall Street.

The selling this year will be pronounced. Stock prices generally have dropped more than 20 per cent. And in some instances prices have been halved.

Unsoundly Based
Much of this year's price activity was unsoundly based. Small investors were in the market, some of them buying even as insiders were selling. Their desire often was fed by rumors, hopes and considerable cash, much of it obviously from savings accounts.

You may be sure the Securities and Exchange Commission is studying some of the unusual activity in this year's market, in which the slightest rumor often produced wild swings. Both the American and New York Stock exchanges warned about speculation. And they raised the downpayment on stocks.

Vote School Tax

PORTAGE (AP) — Voters in this Kalamazoo suburb have approved a $2.7 million bond issue and a one mill tax increase by nearly a two to one margin. The proposals will finance construction of two elementary schools and an administration building.

"We Couldn't Have Dreamed Up a Better Recruiting Gimmick Ourselves!"

To End Atlanta Slums

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

ATLANTA—(NEA)—Despite sudden attack upon him by some white liberals, Mayor Ivan Allen of Atlanta seems sure to emerge from his city's post-Labor Day racial disturbances a stronger figure than ever. Responsible Negro leaders and sympathetic white spokesmen in this city simply do not buy any argument that the recent incidents demonstrate that the mayor's internationally celebrated assault upon Negro conditions is fundamentally insincere.

Influential Negroes and whites do criticize Allen on important specifics of his performance, but they do not seriously question his motives, his attitudes or his courage in wading neck-deep into Atlanta's racial problems.

Most impressive to these people was his risky mingling with young hoodlums stirred up in the Sept. 6 outbreak in Summerhill, close to Atlanta's gleaming new stadium. For an hour and a half, Allen plunged from one angry knot of rock-throwing Negroes to another, trying to calm them down and avert stern police action. He told this reporter in an interview: "Sometimes when I'd be talking to one group, another would be jumping a policeman just behind my back."

Most of the aroused Negroes did not know who he was. Some, he found, did not know what a mayor was. While he milled around, some policemen helplessly muttered fears for his safety.

An experienced Negro civil rights leader in Atlanta says privately: "It was very significant that Mayor Allen saw the trouble first-hand, that he experienced the anger and didn't just read about it in police reports. He went out there when his very presence could have been provocative."

"It is good to know we have a man who cares enough to go in and see."

A white liberal, looking at the mayor from a longer view, says his determination to rid Atlanta of slums is "almost an obsession" with him. This source thinks, in fact, that others in the city's white power structure are sometimes annoyed at the mayor's preoccupation with this and other Negro problems.

A tour of the two areas where outbreaks occurred shows that some slum structures are coming down, though many more need the wrecking ball. Summerhill is almost totally bad. The other trouble zone, the Boulevard section, has many solidly built dwellings but too few are in good repair. Fifteen years ago it was an all-white area.

These and other Atlanta slum pockets like Vine City are not generally large, and for the most part do not compare in squalor and meanness to the vast ghettos of northern industrial cities.

Nevertheless, they are focal points of despair and abject poverty, too easily forgotten in Atlanta's headlong thrust to constantly new economic heights.

Some of the very same Negro and white spokesmen who speak feelingly of Allen's dedication and courage believe that he has not really grasped the depths of slum despair and frustration, that he moves too slowly and too narrowly to eradicate festering conditions which could be growing worse.

All the blame for this is not laid at his door. Negro leaders often criticize themselves and their middle-class colleagues for not showing more forceful and imaginative leadership.

There was criticism of the mayor, however, for arresting SNICK leader Stokely Carmichael and other SNICK workers on charges of "inciting to riot." It was argued that responsible Negroes in the disturbance areas were effectively casting out Carmichael and his limited followers on their own.

Though experienced Negro leaders vehemently disapproved of Carmichael's tactics, a prominent lawyer among them said privately that one group he sat in with suggested quietly that the stir "might do us a whole lot of good."

The argument is the obvious one—there has been too much attention to Atlanta's shining surface, too little to its seamy underside.

The white liberal quoted earlier thinks Allen himself may see in six months some benefit from the outbreaks. Whether he does or not, he will continue to stand in solid with progressive racial elements here. They would not know where to find another like him.

COLORED TOUR

This annual spectacular varies about two weeks between lakes Superior and Erie. It is now at its best along the St. Mary's River. The distance between these beautiful settings will perhaps lessen as time marches on and our population increases.

On the St. Clair and Detroit rivers it comes a week or 10 days later than only 200 miles further north. All this color is nearby as a ship travels the rivers, and is really worth seeing, but as Thoreau said "The we travel the world over to find the beautiful, we must carry it with us, or we see it not."

Owing to a stiff north wind our recent trip up (north) was only a few miles out from Superior's north shore. This is a land of rocky islands and shoreline. The trees on these quite numerous islands are mostly wind-whipped and stunted pine, spruce, and white birch.

The mountains on the mainland are partly covered with low grade hardwoods. There are, however, good yellow birch log trees scattered throughout this not so small wilderness. The bulk of our beautiful birch veneer logs now come from this area.

The deck of a lake is also an ideal spot from which to learn to distinguish migratory birds of the central flyway. The little purple-throated hummer is the last to arrive on the shores of Lake Superior in early summer. It is also the first to start south, usually in early September.

During sleek storms geese, ducks, and even swans have been known to take refuge on the icy deck of a lake. When this occurs these birds show no noticeable fear of man. The cormorant is a rare visitor to the Great Lakes, but we never hear of that great ocean traveler, the albatross, paying a visit to our inland seas.

The life of a sailor is what one makes it, but color — we have it on the Great Lakes in more ways, or hues, than one!

Ann Landers Peck At Station Not Always Devotion

Dear Ann Landers: Frank and I have been married for 12 years. We have a fine family and a comfortable home in the suburbs. My "problem" may seem so petty that it might even irritate you. But I'm going to chance it anyway. Frank would rather take the train to town than fight the traffic. I like the idea a lot because the convenience of having the car all day is great.

Every morning when I drive Frank to the train all around me husbands are kissing their wives goodbye as they hop out of cars. It makes me very envious.

Last week I came right out and asked Frank to kiss me goodbye. He said, "Mushing it up in public is in poor taste and I refuse to do it." I told him a husbandly peck on the cheek was not mushing it up. He said in his opinion, it was. How do YOU feel about it?
—KISSLESS FAREWELL

Dear Farewell: It doesn't matter how I feel. Obviously Frank doesn't want to kiss you goodbye at the station and that should settle it.

Be honest and ask yourself why you want Frank to kiss you goodbye at the station. It's really for others rather than for yourself, isn't it? I can tell you those kisses at the station don't prove a thing. If you think that every man who kisses his wife at the station is a devoted and loving husband, I've got news for you.

Dear Ann Landers: Our daughter, Roberta, moved to another city to work and live with relatives. There she met the young man of her choice. They were married in a civil ceremony eight months ago and kept it a secret. He is of the Roman Catholic faith. We are Protestants.

Two months ago they were married by a priest because his folks wanted it that way. Roberta did not convert.

Now for my problem: Roberta wants to be married by a Protestant minister in our church and invite all her school friends and all our relatives. We started to plan for this wedding two weeks ago. This morning she told me she is at least two months pregnant.

Should we tell people they were married several months ago, which nobody would believe and that this wedding is just to please Roberta or should we say nothing and let people talk?—DON'T KNOW

Dear Don't Know: Roberta has been married enough already. Since she is at least two months pregnant I don't think she ought to have any more weddings. Simply pass the word that a marriage took place eight months ago and if you discover a method to keep people from talking, please pass it on.

People, Events Of Yesteryears

From the files of the Escanaba Daily Press 25 YEARS AGO

Seed corn developed at Old Orchard, Daily Press experimental farm, was to be planted next spring in twelve counties in the Upper Peninsula if all of the MEA agricultural teachers who were presented with samples of the corn made use of it.

Escanaba is a port of call twice this week for the Benson Ford, one of the largest and fastest craft in the Great Lakes are trade.

50 YEARS AGO
Rattles and his performing bears pleased two large audiences at the Coliseum. The mother bear appeared in a skating act that was one of the most novel of its kind ever brought to this city.

The receipts from Escanaba's municipal bathhouse exceeded the record of any former year in the history of the public institution.

Canada Permits Pipeline In U.S.

CALGARY, Alta. (AP)—Oilmen say reversal of a Cabinet ban on construction of a Canadian natural gas pipeline through the United States is a major step forward in development of export markets.

First, they said, it clears the way for approval of the Trans-Canada Pipelines Ltd. plan by the U.S. Federal Power Commission. The proposed line will run from Emerson, Man., to the St. Lawrence, Ont., area.

The decision would help pending export applications by demonstrating to the U.S. oil and gas industry that the Canadian government is not embarking on a restrictive policy.

Prime Minister Lester Pearson said the reversal was based on promises by Trans-Canada that their current Canadian line would remain the company's major route to eastern Canada.

He announced in Ottawa Tuesday the company agreed to a long-range objective of shipping 65 per cent of the gas needed in the East through the existing northern Ontario route.

One Calgary spokesman said this factor may reduce the financial attractiveness of a pipeline route running south of the Great Lakes.

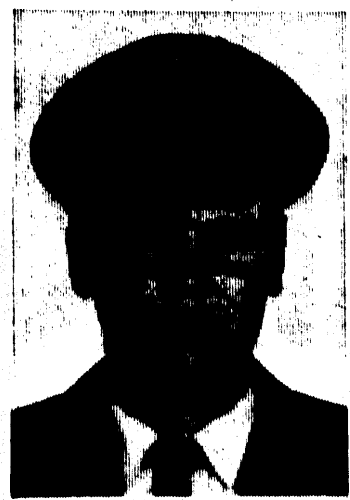

Trans-Canada originally planned to reduce the volume of shipments through its present line in order to get early volume in the proposed line, thus lower costs, he said.

Trans-Canada now would have to seek markets along the U.S. portion of the proposed line, which could meet increased opposition from U.S. companies seeking to protect their own markets.

Several industry figures predicted the Great Lakes line proposal could be changed even more radically to suit U.S. requirements, perhaps bringing American companies into the project.

An FPC report hinted at a desire for some changes and proposed a complicated system of swapping gas. Northern Natural Gas of Omaha has filed objections with the commission.

However, most sources said the Cabinet decision will give Trans-Canada's application to the FPC a boost because it demonstrates Canadian good will in gas regulation and sales.

Pair Of Payment Brothers Honored By The Air Force

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—Glenn Payment, 36, and his brother, Clarence, 44, were honored by the Air Force Wednesday in recognition of their efforts in fighting a fire following an explosion in the liquid petroleum gas plant at Kincheloe AFB near here last January.

The two men were presented with the Air Force Civilian Award for Valor and $375 each at the ceremony.

Civilian workers employed at the base, Glenn and Clarence, already injured, leaped an eight-foot wall in helping control the fire, at the risk of their own lives, the citation said.

The brothers were among four persons injured and hospitalized in the explosion which cut off heat for a time to 1,200 housing units at the base.

All Brides Tired Of These Quips

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks that young brides get tired of hearing: "I made a list of the wedding presents for you, dear. You got 12 electric toasters, 18 silver trays, 7 sugar and creamer sets, 29 dish towels, 3 $10 gift certificates, $18.27 in cash — and a rabbit's foot."

"After all, we've been married a full two weeks. Why shouldn't I spend a night out with the fellows? You don't expect me to be a hermit, do you?"

"Maybe it would be better if we took nothing for granted and started at the very beginning. Well, then cooking consists of the application of heat to raw food material to help make it more tender, tasty and easily digestible. If you are sure you comprehend that, we can go on to the next step."

"Yes, it's a darling apartment, Jill. You and Jack were lucky to find it. But I'm all out of breath from climbing so many stairs. And aren't the rooms a bit on the small side?"

"Of course, I expect you to get up and fix me breakfast every morning, honey. My mother has done it for my dad for 36 years, and my grandmother did it for grandpa for 55 years. On their golden wedding anniversary, she even brought him his breakfast in bed."

"Maybe it is romantic to eat

by candlelight, but candles cost money. Anyway, I like to be able to see what's on my plate."

"Well, you don't have to make a federal case out of it the very first time I stop off for a couple of quick ones with the guys where I work."

"I suppose he told you he wanted you to quit your job as soon as you got the furniture paid for? My little man said the same thing to me when we got married back in 1941, and now I'm wearing an office 35-year pin and still pounding a typewriter."

"You must be kidding about having to go to the beauty shop. I thought after girls married they fixed their hair at home. What else have they got to do?"

"As your mother, Jill, you know I want you to be happy, but remember I was the one who told you from the start that Jack would give you trouble."

"Whatever he does or doesn't do, don't just cry about it. Make a scene. Husbands can't stand scenes."

"When you're as old as I am, you'll understand that they're all beasts — yes, every blasted one of them."

"You liked me pretty well as I was before we were married. Why do you want me to change all at once now?"

"For Pete's sake, Jill, quit calling me at the office. The other guys are razzing me about it — and the boss doesn't like it."

"Okay, okay, so you fixed the casserole for me as a surprise. Well, after eating it, I'm still surprised. What was it — corn flakes in codfish gravy, or Hungarian graham crackers and meat sauce?"

"Of course, I still love you. Do you want me to write it on a piece of paper and paste it on the kitchen wall?"

"Go dancing? Honey, we're married now. How about going bowling?"

U. S. Ports Handle Canada's Exports

MONTREAL, Que. (AP)—U.S. ports are having to handle an increasing share of Canadian exports because Canadian ports are not properly mechanized, says John L. Kyrle, president of Saguenay Shipping, Ltd.

Kyrle told the Canadian Export Association Wednesday he expects it will be another three to five years before Canada's ports are sufficiently modernized to handle the country's own export trade.

Natural gas was first known to man as a supernatural fire.

Carylift Given State's Award

BARAGA (AP)—Michigan's Product of the Year is the Carylift, a materials handling machine produced by Pettibone Michigan Corp.

The award was presented to Russell Carriere, company vice president; Phillip Latendresse, the inventor, and E.J. Seifert, president of Pettibone's parent firm, Pettibone Mulliken Corp. of Chicago. Dale I. Sellers, president of the Greater Michigan Foundation, which promotes Michigan Week, made the presentation.

The product is manufactured in this Upper Peninsula community of 1,000 residents where Pettibone employs 600 persons in its manufacture and assembly.

The company said Cary-Lift sales were almost $15 million this year compared with $8 million in 1965. The predicted sales for 1967 are $25 million.

"The winning of the award would not have been possible without the team effort of Pettibone Michigan and its local suppliers," said Seifert.

The firm employs 106 in the assembly operations with most of the parts manufacture subcontracted to firms in the immediate area.

State Police Arrest 21,223 During August

LANSING (AP)—Michigan State Police during August made 21,223 arrests, processed 17,616 sets of fingerprints, identified $15,128 worth of bad checks and issued 28,284 oral warnings to drivers, the department reports.

It said 19,944 of the arrests were for traffic offenses. Department vehicles traveled nearly 2 million miles during the month, more than half of that on traffic patrol.

Officers also nabbed 1,000 juvenile traffic offenders, 1,000 delinquent minors and one wayward minor. They assisted 8,000 motorists, made 11,971 property inspections and checked out 10,677 cars.

Power Battle Rages In Texas

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—With the prestige of President Johnson and Gov. John B. Connally at stake, Texas Democrats are setting a multimillion-dollar ambush for the state's lone Republican in Congress, U.S. Sen. John G. Tower.

And with just as much effort, and money, Republicans are trying to make Tower's campaign for a second term into a vehicle for regaining ground they lost in the 1964 election.

The situation is complicated by the fact that both Tower and his Democratic opponent, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, are conservatives. Carr faces the very real possibility of a boycott of the polls by liberal Democrats who have been feuding with the party's dominant conservative faction for a decade.

Tower, 41, a former college professor, and Carr, 46, have accused each other of spending around $2 million in an attempt to buy the election.

The campaign is a definite crisis for Texas Republicans. Two years ago, when native son Lyndon B. Johnson trounced Barry Goldwater, he swept most Texas Democratic candidates into office with him. Two Republican congressmen went down in defeat. What had been a growing group of GOP state legislators shrank from 11 to 1 representative in the 180-member House.

WLST Joining State Network Song Festival

Over a thousand local school children will raise their voices in song this year as they join the state's largest classroom. "Festival of Song," produced by the University of Michigan, a unique and effective educational service is provided without cost, will be broadcast locally as a public service by Radio Station WLST. Song time will be 1:30-2:00 every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon.

The statewide program is designed to provide a basic music curriculum for elementary and grade school children. Activities in the year-long course include folk dances, rhythm, part-singing, music reading and music appreciation. Each spring the radio teacher, a student quartet, and staff members of the university tour the state to cooperate in the production of live song festivals.

Many schools in the area, both public and parochial, are taking advantage of the program.

Pre Deer Season Law Meeting Is Held For U. P.

Michigan Department of Conservation law enforcement supervisors Hugh Fisher, Baraga; Oscar Sundquist, Crystal Falls; Robert Timmer, Escanaba; and Byron Boogren, Newberry, attended a pre-deer season meeting at Marquette Region office Oct. 4-5.

The meeting, called by Regional Supervisor Bernard Stephansky, covered the organizing the deer patrol teams with game, fish, fire, forestry, lands and parks personnel; registration of hunters to facilitate delivery of emergency messages; law enforcement budget; review of laws and patrol techniques for the small game, deer and waterfowl seasons; hunter safety training; and coordinating the use of airplanes for law patrols.

It is expected that prior to and during the deer season, over 120 field personnel will be on law enforcement patrol.

Freeway Opens

LANSING (AP)—The final section of the Lansing-to-Jackson Freeway, a seven-mile stretch of U. S. 127 from Mason to I 96 at Lansing, will be opened Oct. 14, the Highway Commission said.

Record Timber Sale Offered

An Upper Peninsula record for one month state timber to be offered for sale is reported by the regional office of the Michigan Department of Conservation, Marquette.

The sale, which includes 29 blocks of timber from nine State forests in the Upper Peninsula amounts to $88,030. Approval for the sale is expected at next week's Commission meeting to be held at Lansing on Oct. 13 and 14.

The Michigan State Forest offers the largest amount at $22,455 for seven blocks of timber. Four blocks amounting to $18,638 in the Iron Range State Forest runs second high in value.

Demand for timber products continues very good, State Foresters report. It may also be noted that for each dollar of stumpage sold, $3.10 is returned to the laborer.

Linda Fuhrman Bride Of James P. Moyle

Miss Linda Lucille Fuhrman of Perkins became the bride of James Phillip Moyle of Escanaba during a double ring ceremony performed Saturday, Sept. 24 at St. Joseph's Church in Perkins.

Hearing the solemn exchange of vows at 5 o'clock in the afternoon was the Rev. Edward Malloy. During the Mass the bride also placed a bouquet of white pompons at the altar of the Blessed Virgin.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fuhrman of Perkins and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moyle of 1417 N. 22nd St., Escanaba.

Peas d'ange
The bride, escorted down the white carpeted aisle on the arm of her father, chose a demi-fitted princess styled floor length gown of pea d'ange fashioned with long tapered sleeves and scoop neckline. Baroque Venice lace outlined the hemline of the gown and the detachable waist train. A lace petal with pearl and crystal trim held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried a cascade arrangement of red sweetheart roses and white carnations.

Maid of honor was Myra

Miljour of Perkins and bridesmaids were Darlene Anderson, Jaynie Wandahega and Susan Demeuse, all of Perkins.

Sapphire Blue
They were attired in floor length sheath gowns of sapphire blue silk organza over taffeta with flowing organza trains. The empire lace bodices were styled with scoop necklines and long sleeves. Their headpieces were large organza bows of matching blue with silk illusion veil and they carried cascade bouquets of white and blue tinted pompons with trailing blue baby's breath.

Serving as bestman for his brother was John Moyle of Escanaba and further attending the bridegroom were Denny Beauchamp, Paul Anderson and Richard Sherwin of Escanaba. Seating the guests were Bob Apter of Perkins and Tom Smith of Gladstone.

Mothers' Attire
For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Fuhrman wore a sheath dress of turquoise bonded lace with blue and white accessories and a corsage of red sweetheart roses and white carnations. Mrs. Moyle selected a medium blue bonded wool A-line dress with brown accessories and a corsage of red sweetheart roses and white carnations.

The reception was held following the ceremony at the Perkins Legion Hall. Assisting were Miss Janice Lauscher, presiding at the silver service; Miss Julie Demeuse, circulated the guest book and Miss Susan Backlund, cut the wedding cake.

When the newlyweds left on their honeymoon trip to an undisclosed destination the bride wore a celery green suit with white accessories and was presented a corsage of yellow and white pompons. Upon their return they will make their home in Escanaba.

The bride is a graduate of Perkins High School and Mr. Moyle graduated from Escanaba High School. He is presently employed at Harnischfeger Corp.

HINTS FROM Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise:
Has anyone ever suggested nail polish as a simple way of marking the family tooth-brushes?

The polish stays on the handles and does not interfere with the use of the brush.

Dots or lines can be used in any sort of code... one dot for the smallest child, two for the next, etc., or lines for the grown ups.

I find this quite handy.

Dr. J. G.

Dear Heloise:
I have three pairs of stretch pants and ruined one pair when I tried to press them. I guess I used too hot an iron.

Should they be steam ironed or dry ironed, what temperature, and so forth.

Corinne Blake

Dear Heloise:
Another use for nylon net: Completely cover an orange by sticking whole cloves in it, wrap in netting and tie with a bow.

This makes a nice fragrance in the closet and drawers, and would also make a nice gift for a birthday, shower, etc.

Ford Warranty For Used Cars

DETROIT (AP)—Ford Motor Co. has extended its warranty for purchasers of 1964, 1965 and 1966 Ford used cars.

The move, latest in the continuing battle among the auto companies for the lead in the warranty program, left Ford with what it called the broadest guarantees yet to used car buyers. Other auto makers had no immediate comment on the Ford program.

It was an extension of the industry-wide power-train guarantee of five years or 50,000 miles on all U.S. built 1967 cars.

Ford listed four conditions which a used car buyer would have to observe to get the new protection afforded to future purchasers of any Ford Division or Lincoln-Mercury Division used car built from 1964 on.

Ford agreed the customer would have to pay only the first $25 of the cost of each warranted repair or replacement, with the company picking up the rest of the tab until any one of the four points is reached:

1. 24 months from the expiration date of the vehicle's original two-year or 24,000-mile power train warranty, or from the date of registration in the used car warranty program.
2. Five years from date of production of the warranted vehicle.
3. 50,000 miles of total operation.
4. Sale of the warranted used vehicle by the purchaser to whom the warranty was issued.

Ford emphasized the used car warranty was nontransferable and that in no case could a car be warranted beyond five years from the time it was built.

The power train warranty as defined by Ford included the engine block, transmission case, driveshaft, rear axle, torque converter and universal joints.

The used car warranty did not include the suspension and steering assemblies and wheels included in Ford's five-year or 50,000-mile warranty on its 1967 passenger cars.

Ford said its dealers will make a list of all eligible used cars in their stock as the first step in the new program.

Jazz Musician Convicted On Narcotics Count

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jazz musician Chesney (Chet) Baker has been convicted of forging a narcotics prescription.

Sentencing was set for Nov. 22. Superior Court Judge Bernard Selber found the 36-year-old trumpet player guilty after Baker submitted his case on the transcript of the preliminary hearing.

Baker, who lives in Redondo Beach, Calif., was accused of forging a prescription for an opium derivative called Naludid. Baker said he had not been able to get the drug since moving from New York. He said he used it to correct a facial twitch.

Greek Priest Is Guest Here Of Chapekises

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Chapekis, 1601 S. 16th St., have had as a guest her uncle, a priest of the Greek Orthodox Church, the Rev. Fr. James Sitaras, who has the large parish of St. Nicholas at Piraus, Greece, the port of Athens, in his charge.

On Sunday he conducted the service at the Orthodox Church at Marquette, which is one of two of the rite in the Upper Peninsula. The other is at Sault Ste. Marie.

The priest has two brothers in Chios, Greece who are also priests, and a brother, William Sitaras, in Detroit, whom he visited on this trip. He drove with the Chapekises to Chicago on Wednesday to begin a two week visitation there with relatives and to conduct services in Orthodox churches.

During the same period, Canada's net creditor position in the international monetary fund, which the department says can be regarded as the equivalent of exchange reserves, rose $10.2 million to $272 million.

New Electrical Division Formed By Harnishfeger

MILWAUKEE — Harnishfeger Corp. moved today to seek a greater share of the expanding electrical products market. President Henry Harnishfeger announced the formation of a separate Electrical Products Division and said that George E. Kemper, former A. O. Smith Corp. vice president and Welding products chief, would serve as its general manager.

Harnishfeger said the move was the result of "a careful year-long re-assessment of our growth potential in the electrical products field which led to the conclusion that growth in this direction continues to offer attractive benefits."

"The new unit," Harnishfeger said, "will combine and put greater emphasis on the engineering, manufacturing and marketing of electric motors, brakes, and controls and specialized DC power sources."

"For many years we have been a larger manufacturer of motors, brakes and controls than most people have realized. We have been our own best customer for these products but we have also sold substantial amounts to other crane builders and to existing P&H crane owners who want to modernize their equipment."

Harnishfeger stated that the success of the newer DC specialized power sources "speaks for itself." He explained that during the past year these units have gained widespread acceptance for specialized application in many industries, particularly in aerospace research where they are used to provide power for missile re-entry heat simulation.

Supervisors' Approval Is Urged

Doctors Back Mental Health Plan

Delta County members of the Delta-Schoolcraft Medical Society will support the current effort to create a four-county mental health district which would add a doctor of psychiatry to the Escanaba staffing of the branch clinic.

The headquarters for the new mental health district would be in Marquette and the counties involved would be Marquette, Alger, Delta and Schoolcraft. The program would expand the present Child Guidance Clinic to a clinic serving persons of all ages under Michigan Act. 54, which pays three-quarters of the expense of such programs, and with federal aid for the first five years.

Dr. N. J. Theisen, president of the Medical Society, and Drs.

Thomas McInerney, George Maniaci and Dr. Raymond L. Hockstad conferred with Richard Rinehart of the committee organizing Delta-Schoolcraft participation and others at St. Francis Hospital on Wednesday.

Will Urge Support

The Medical Society spokesmen said that it would be glad to send a representative to the meeting of the Delta County Board of Supervisors which considers Delta's participation in the Mental Health District. The county board would be the official sponsoring agency. It already helps finance the Escanaba Branch of the U. P. Child Guidance Clinic and the Marquette Adult Mental Health Clinic which would be taken over by the new program.

A crucial point in Delta's participation in the four-county district is the assignment of a psychiatrist to Escanaba. The original plan would have assigned another psychiatrist to Marquette and have had him provide itinerant service here.

To create an effective psychiatric diagnostic and therapy program in Escanaba, the physicians explained, would necessitate a facility for such services at St. Francis Hospital. The Medical Society will explore with the Third Order of St. Francis, who owns and operates the hospital, a proposal that a 16-bed psychiatric unit be created at the hospital by conversion of present space, or by addition of a wing or floor. The Third Order has such a facility at its St. Mary's Hospital in Marquette.

Mental Health Needs

The Medical Society recently heard Dr. John C. Morris, a psychiatrist who recently located at Marquette for the private practice of psychiatry, say that Delta's population indicated need for three or four psychiatrists if local mental health needs were to be served adequately.

He told the physicians that half of the persons in U. S. general hospital (not mental hospital) beds today are emotionally disturbed people. In other words, that their illnesses are caused by the mind and are not organic although such illnesses often results in an organic condition which the general practitioner is called in to treat.

The Medical Society also heard John J. Feehley, deputy director of professional relations for Michigan State Medical Services (Blue Cross and Blue Shield, hospital and doctor bill insurance services) recently, who said that on the whole Blue Cross and Blue Shield are accepting doctors charges under the Medicare program. A physician may make a "reasonable" charge under this program or his customary charge of the prevailing charge, which doesn't prevent specialists from charging more for specialized services.

Medicare Pay Slow

Medicare has been operative for more than three months now, since July 1, as a part of Social Security, but no Delta County doctors are believed to have received any money yet in payment for welfare patient care under Medicare through Blue Cross and Blue Shield, the fiscal agents for the program. The local hospital has also had its payments delayed.

The delay was caused first by use of wrong forms and failure to get the patient's signature on forms. Until Oct. 1 doctors were supposed to bill Blue Cross and Blue Shield for all welfare patients and they were supposed to pay and be reimbursed by the Welfare Department. After Oct. 1 the doctors will bill the Welfare Department directly.

"We're small businessmen," said a physician. "That's a long time to go without pay."

Perch fishing has been good on Sixteen Mile Lake in Alger County using live minnows for bait. Some northern pike are being taken in AuTrain Lake with live minnows as the best bait.

In Delta County rainbow trout have been hitting well on worms and canned corn fished about a foot off the bottom in Camp Seven Lake. Fishing on other waters open to late fishing should also produce good results.

Bass have been hitting near the bluffs south of Garden, and although fishermen have been reluctant to try it, it is expected that good catches can be made at St. Vitalis Island.

In general all officers report the color change well under way and say it should "peak" in the coming weekend. Wind, rain, and hail have started the leaves falling in some areas.

Edith Farley, 83, Is Dead

GARDEN — Miss Edith Farley, 83, of Manistique died at 10:45 p. m. Wednesday at St. Joseph Lloyd Hospital in Menominee where she had been a patient for two days. She had been in failing health for four years.

Miss Farley was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Farley and spent her entire life in the Garden-Manistique area.

She was a member of John The Baptist Church of Garden. She resided at and operated the Garden Hotel until her retirement some years ago.

Surviving are two brothers, George of Garden and Aldred of Manistique; five sisters, Mrs. Harriet Winters of Garden, Mrs. Blanche Jocke of Garden, Mrs. Lucy Purtil of Manistique, Mrs. Pearl Heric of Manistique and Mrs. Leslie DeVet of Fayette. Also surviving are many nieces and nephews, including Carey Don Farley, son of the late Don Farley, who made his home with her.

Friends may call at the Messier-Brouillette Funeral Home in Garden beginning at 3 p. m. Friday. The rosary will be recited at 8 p. m. Friday. Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 10 a. m. at St. John the Baptist Church in Garden with burial in the New Garden Cemetery.

Rainbows Are Creel Prizes

Some 12-17 inch rainbows are being taken from Johnson Lake in Section 27, Marquette County by trolling with cowbells, and the fishing is expected to improve, says Robert Timmer of the Conservation Department.

Perch fishing has been good on Sixteen Mile Lake in Alger County using live minnows for bait. Some northern pike are being taken in AuTrain Lake with live minnows as the best bait.

In Delta County rainbow trout have been hitting well on worms and canned corn fished about a foot off the bottom in Camp Seven Lake. Fishing on other waters open to late fishing should also produce good results.

Good Education
Basic State Goal,
DelliQuadri Says

The basic consideration of the eight men of the State Board of Education is not in the child, whether it goes to public or private school," Carmen DelliQuadri told the first general session of the U. P. Catholic Educational Association at Holy Name high school today.

"This is why we have passed a tuition grant so the private sector can survive in our society," said DelliQuadri, a professor at Michigan Tech and a member of the State Board of Education. "It is essential to our survival because the state can't guarantee freedom, it can only come with varied groups and interests."

"In Nazi Germany the first thing to go was education. We need this multicolored blanket. It doesn't matter whether the child is in public or private school. In the 20th century they should get the best education we can give them and we are making headway with a federal program in this process."

"Under Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Act Michigan is getting about $35 million for the disadvantaged child and it doesn't matter which school he is in," he continued.

"We have a crucial problem of money. Michigan has been prosperous for five years, but we can see the end written on the wall. We are not going to spend what we have been spending. It is inconceivable to keep spending these millions. The money is not there under the present tax structure. The money is there, all right, but the question is 'How do we change taxes so that education becomes more important than smoking or war?'"

"Under our present tax structure, we're not going to do the job."

DelliQuadri said that teachers are better off because of the money coming from the state, which has increased its share of public schooling costs from 42 to 52 per cent in the last two years. He said the teachers are also bolstered by new legislation, giving them the right to bargain on wages and hours.

Lake Michigan
Rise Continues

TRAVERSE CITY (AP)—The U. S. Lake Survey said Tuesday that Great Lakes water levels have risen as much as 20 inches from the record lows of 1964 and are expected to continue to rise for the next six months.

"Michigan's lake levels will continue their gradual rise," said B. G. DeCook, chief of the water regulation branch of the U. S. Lake Survey, Army Corps of Engineers. "We can now assure the public and others in the state who consider the Great Lakes water levels vital because they are so important to business and industry that these levels are going to be above the 10-year average in the foreseeable future."

DeCook will be one of the key speakers at the annual three-day meeting of the Michigan Section, American Water Works Association, which opens today in Traverse City. The organization includes some 300 superintendents of water systems and other public utilities throughout the state.

Some discussion is expected to center around ground-water levels which the Michigan Conservation Department says are not keeping up with the Great Lakes. The department says inland lake levels are about a half inch below the 200-year median.

Stockpiling of flood relief supplies continued and a mass immunization program is being pushed.

Four of the hardest-hit provinces had been rice surplus areas. They now are receiving relief supplies of the grain at a rate of about 2,500 tons monthly.

A similar award is to be made to Senator Joseph Mack (D-Ironwood). The senator is pictured receiving a mock check for $1 billion from Ralph Gillam, vice chairman of the Upper Michigan Tourist Association, Manistique, representing the growth of the tourist business in the state to a billion dollar volume this year for the first time in history. Teachers Urged To Participate
In State, Local, Nation Politics

E. Dale Kennedy, executive secretary of the Michigan Education Association, urged teachers and educators to "assume political responsibility" by example as well as instruction as the MEA opened its Region 16-17-18 conference in Escanaba today.

More than 2,000 teachers from nearly every Upper Peninsula school district jammed into the Area High School for the day and a half exhibits, group meetings, political confrontations and business of the meeting.

Kennedy keynoted the opening session after a welcome from Luther M. Barrett, superintendent of the Escanaba Area school district, and remarks by Carmen DelliQuadri, Houghton, member of the State Board of Education.

"Knowing about politics is one thing, but doing is another," Kennedy told the teachers. "We must teach not only by instruction, but by example."

"If children see us stay away from the polls, know we don't register to vote, then our instruction is negated," he emphasized.

Kennedy said it was an educator's responsibility to be informed of the issues and evaluate both political parties and candidates. He said teachers must also take an active part in local, state and national government, evaluating the record of incumbents and the platforms of political parties.

"We must do these things if we are alert and informed teachers," Kennedy cited the 1966 MEA platform as a good basis for political participation.

The MEA, he said, urges fiscal reform in Michigan to provide a more stable fiscal structure for Michigan and also stronger financing for public education. He said the MEA supports fiscal reform based on five points: 1. personal and corporate income tax; 2. property tax relief; 3. uniform assessing; 4. adjustment of the business activities tax, and 5. removal of sales tax from food and drugs.

Theme Continues
The "political responsibility" theme of the convention is expected to continue tonight at the second general session with addresses by Cong. Raymond F. Cleveland (D-Sault Ste. Marie) and Philip Ruppe (R-Houghton). Cleveland's opponent in the November 11th District election.

Scheduled this afternoon was a "Meet Your Candidates" program at St. Anne's Church featuring 10 political office seekers from the Upper Peninsula.

While the political aspects of the convention were featured on several fronts, more than 100 commercial representatives jammed the high school commons area with the latest in text books, audio visual materials and teaching aids.

Group program meetings also continued this afternoon featuring many outstanding resource people from Northern Michigan University and private industry.

Featured speaker at the general session Friday morning, will be Juvenile Court Judge Philip B. Gilliam of Denver, who will speak on the topic, "What's Wrong With People."

The convention will close Friday morning.

Postmaster James E. Fryal has been notified that the week of Oct. 10 has been officially proclaimed ZIP Code Week in the State of Michigan by Governor George P. Romney.

The Proclamation issued in Lansing the governor called attention to the fact that "Population growth and economic expansion have triggered a mail explosion which increased our national volume at the phenomenal rate of almost four billion pieces this year."

The governor called upon "all citizens to join in observance of this week by learning and using their ZIP Codes, in both mailing and return addresses of all letters and packages."

To assist postal patrons in securing ZIP Codes for most often used addresses, letter carriers will be delivering the new ZIP-A-LIST Cards beginning Oct. 10, so that these may be filled out, returned to the post office, ZIP-Coded and returned to the postal patron.

DETROIT (AP)—Parke, Davis & Co. announced Wednesday the purchase of Aeroplast Corp. of Dayton, Ohio, for an undisclosed sum.

Aeroplast, a subsidiary of Helene Curtis Industries Inc., makes surgical drapes and spray dressings for hospital use.

Parke, Davis President Harold W. Burrows said Aeroplast assets include eight products, patents and patent applications covering these products and possible future products.

The acquisition affords Parke, Davis the "immediate opportunity to acquire a product line that fits into our plans for the continued expansion of our surgical dressings business," said Burrows.

Milk Inspections Half Completed
EAST LANSING (AP)—Nearly half of all Michigan farmers producing for the fluid milk market have passed inspection under Michigan's new Grade A milk law, a Michigan State University extension dairyman says.

Donald Murray said indications are that by the end of the year, nearly all the 11,570 dairymen selling to the fluid milk market will have received permits after state inspection.

Thomas' car and raincoat and bow were found. The raincoat and bow appeared to have been struck by gun pellets. Used shotgun shells found nearby were sent to State Police laboratories at East Lansing for examination. A shotgun was found in Thomas' car.

Michigan Schools
Criticized In Poor
Merit Test Score

LANSING (AP)—A Washington-based council of education has criticized Michigan public schools because of what it called a poor showing by Michigan students in the 1965 National Merit Scholarship tests.

The State Education Department called the criticism by the nonprofit council for Basic Education unjustified and unfounded.

An official of the National Merit Scholarship Corp. agreed with state officials that merit test results should not be the basis of comparing the quality of education in various states.

Michigan ranked 33rd in the council's listing for the 1965 tests. The council said only 1.18 per cent of Michigan high school juniors who took the tests qualified for the select group, compared with a national average of 1.69.

The council ranked Connecticut first with 3.22 and New York second with 3.18. Mississippi was last with 0.45.

"I think this is a pretty shameful showing by a state like Michigan," George Weber, the council's associate director, said from Washington.

Differences between states make use of test results an unreliable indicator of school quality, said Harold Harding, assistant to the president of the National Merit Scholarship Corp. of Evanston, Ill.

He said migration into Michigan of low-intelligence persons could lower Michigan's over-all intelligence level.

If this is true, Harding added, he would have to conclude that Michigan was doing a good job in education by keeping the level as high as it is.

Seek Bowhunter Missing 3 Days
EAST TAWAS (AP)—Searchers for missing hunter Charles Thomas of Flint concentrated Wednesday on an area a mile and a half in each direction from the spot where his car was found.

Thomas, 29, of Flint, a bow and arrow hunter, disappeared Monday near East Tawas. The Wurtsmith Air Force Base is aiding in the search.

Isco County Sheriff Ivan O'Farrell said there is a possibility that Thomas may have been shot to death and his body buried. O'Farrell said the terrain is being examined for a possible grave.

Thomas' car and raincoat and bow were found. The raincoat and bow appeared to have been struck by gun pellets. Used shotgun shells found nearby were sent to State Police laboratories at East Lansing for examination. A shotgun was found in Thomas' car.

Jailbreak Charge Placed Against Kentucky Trio
ADRIAN (AP)—Three men who reportedly broke out of a Kentucky jail and kidnapped an Indiana man Tuesday were awaiting extradition in the Lawrence County jail today.

Held on charges of kidnapping, armed robbery, carrying concealed weapons and stealing a vehicle were Victor Stubblefield, 21, Willie Willie, 26, and Charles Peffer, about 21.

Michigan State police arrested the three men on U. S. 12, 15 miles northwest of this southern Michigan community early Wednesday.

Police said Stubblefield, Willie and Peffer were being held for federal marshals who are expected to return them to Kentucky sometime today.

The three men reportedly wounded three officers in escaping from the Franklin County Jail in Frankfort, Ky., Tuesday.

Late Tuesday night, they allegedly kidnapped Elva Finch, 52, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and forced him to accompany them to Michigan in his car.

Finch said he was bound to a tree near a county road several miles north of the Indiana State line in Branch County. He later freed himself and called police from a nearby farm house.

Finch said he was on his way home after purchasing some soft drinks in a Fort Wayne tavern when he was accosted by the three fugitives and ordered to drive toward Michigan.

He said the three men threatened to harm him, but finally left after tying him to a tree with belts.

Chrysler Waits
Union's Accord

DETROIT (AP)—Chrysler Corp. prepared today to return 42,000 workers to their jobs, pending ratification of an agreement to end an Ohio stamping plant strike.

The firm said it would resume production, starting Friday at its Twinsburg, Ohio, facility if the United Auto Workers Union ratified an agreement to settle 14 grievances at the Ohio plant.

A ratification meeting was set today among the 4,300 strikers at Twinsburg. Workers walked out seven days ago over grievances ranging from the quality of cafeteria food to alleged faulty brakes on lift trucks. Agreement tentatively was reached Wednesday between UAW and management bargainers. Details were withheld until workers voted on it.

Chrysler laid off 42,000 workers at plants around the country because of the work stoppage at the Twinsburg plant, which is one of only two of Chrysler's stamping plants capable of producing all body sections needed in assembling Chrysler cars.

The firm said it could restore full production by some time next week at the seven assembly plants closed because of the strike. Most would be operating by Tuesday. Partial layoffs would be ended by next Thursday at five other stamping plants.

The firm had said virtually all of its 110,000 hourly rated workers throughout the United States would be laid off by the end of next week if the Twinsburg strike continued.

Democrats Pick Moderate For Weltner Place
ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Atlanta Democrats—to fill the void left when U.S. Rep. Charles L. Weltner withdrew from the congressional race rather than support an ardent segregationist for governor—are relying on self-described middle-of-the-road Archie L. Lindsey.

Lindsey, 55, a real estate agent was picked Wednesday by a party committee to face Republican opposition in the Nov. 8 general election.

Weltner withdrew from the race Monday, saying his principles do not permit him to support Lester G. Maddox as the Democratic nominee for governor.

Lindsey will support Maddox. "I have been a Democrat all my life, have always supported the party ticket and will do so this time," he said.

Congress Votes Menominees Aid
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate completed Congressional approval today on a bill to authorize $1,850,000 to aid the Menominee Indian Tribe in Wisconsin.

The measure, passed by voice vote, now goes to President Johnson and, if signed, actual funds would be voted later in separate money bills.

The Menominee tribe was freed from federal supervision in 1954 by act of Congress and includes most of the 3,200 residents of Menominee County.

Since then Congress has provided $600,000 to help pay school costs and $438,000 for sanitation facilities but neither the county nor Wisconsin has been able to meet health and educational needs of the tribe.

A report on the bill related that there is no doctor, dentist or hospital in the county and its residents have been unable to meet costs of county government or local school and health facilities.

As a result, the report said, "the people are living in poverty, without elemental sanitary and medical facilities."

'Lucky To Be Alive'
Child Has Antenna
Removed From Eye

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Five-year-old Patricia Griffin was described as "lucky to be alive" today by a team of neurosurgeons who removed a car radio antenna lodged in the child's right eye socket and brain.

Doctors who performed the surgery Sept. 26 said Patricia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Griffin of Plymouth, was released from the University of Michigan Hospital Wednesday with nothing more than a black eye.

While playing with a neighbor child, Patricia leaped from her family's garage door to the trunk of the family car.

"I heard a terrific scream from the garage and ran in," said Mrs. Griffin. "Patricia was standing up on the trunk lid, holding the radio antenna. It had gone through her eye."

Doctors said the antenna slipped through a tiny aperture above the tear duct, past the eye socket and lodged an inch into Patricia's brain.

Impaled on the antenna, Patricia couldn't move. Mrs. Griffin called to a neighbor, Allen Finney. The two adults were unable to remove the antenna, so Finney unscrewed it from its base.

They strapped Patricia into a car, cradled the protruding antenna in a pillow, and drove to nearby Annapolis Hospital.

"Patricia was wonderful," her mother said. "She cried a little at first but she kept still and the antenna stayed in place."

At Annapolis, doctors took x-rays, and decided to send the child to the University Hospital, which has greater facilities.

"The antenna penetrated the silent, 'non-vital' area of the brain," a hospital spokesman said. "There is no brain damage. It missed all the important blood vessels."

The spokesman said Patricia is able to see perfectly and—aside from a purple-black swollen eye—there were no ill effects.

Doctors praised Mrs. Griffin and Finney for their quick action in bringing Patricia to a hospital.

"She's on top of the world right now," said Mrs. Griffin. "Telling everyone 'I have a black eye.'"

Opening ceremonies will conclude about three years of planning and work by the Forest Service to provide growing numbers of riders and hikers a trail free of motorized traffic.

Dedication remarks by Sherwood Trotter, Escanaba, Hiawatha National Forest supervisor, and John Winkler, president of the saddle club, will precede ceremonial cutting of two lariats across the trail by Ray Chase, district ranger, and Lawrence Johnston of the Saddle Club's trail committee.

Fellows Bluff Trotter of the Forest Service and Roy Swanson of the Saddle Club will lead the riders through, opening the trail to the public for hikers and riding.

The trail follows the line of the old Indian portage between Grand Island and Bay de Noc as shown on old maps of this territory. Coch Rolfe Dotch has elevated Rich McCarthy of Kingsford to the No. 1 quarterback spot on the Northern Michigan University football team. McCarthy, a sophomore, completed five of 12 passes for 116 yards in the 7-0 setback to Hillsdale last Saturday. McCarthy is the son of Dick McCarthy, veteran Kingsford High School track and field coach.

Tom Demers was one of the University of Wisconsin gridirers awarded special recognition following the 7-0 triumph over Iowa last week. The 6 foot 2 inch, 234 pound junior tackle, shared the weekly "savage" award for excellence on defense.

Joe White of Neagunee St. Paul came up with a near-perfect pitching performance this week in Mid-Peninsula conference baseball action. White fired a no-hitter and struck out 16 of the 22 batters he faced while beating Republic, 5-0. The lone Republic baserunner came on a passed ball.

Rudyard escaped from the winless ranks in Upper Peninsula football last week by the grace of a bad snap of the ball on a punt situation in the game against Pickford. The break came late in the fourth quarter with the teams tied 0-0 and gave Rudyard the ball deep in Pickford territory. Halfback Steve Hoppen pilled into the end zone three plays later for the margin of victory.

John Carello of Ishpeming, one of the Upper Peninsula's outstanding young ski jumpers, was killed last week in an automobile accident. The 19 year old athlete had recently returned from a tryout for the United States Olympic Ski jumping team. He died when his car collided with an ore train at a city crossing in Ishpeming.

Lake Linden is making an amazing football comeback in Upper Peninsula prep ranks. The White Kids stumbled through 11 straight losing seasons (14 wins, 54 losses) before finally giving up the sport altogether in 1963. Then they started over on a limited scale in 1964 by winning two of five starts, vaulted to a 4-3 record last fall, and now have won four of five for Coach Russ Laurin his season. In their last outing the White Kids blanked Marquette Baraga, 28-0. Randy Roberts scored twice while Jim McNickle and Fred Jacobs tallied once each.

Quarterback Jim Boyle and end Paul Miller (converted to halfback last week against Stephenson) have hooked up on five long distance touchdown tosses for Escanaba in their four games this fall. The deadly duo has denied enemy goal lines on plays covering 49, 35, 43, 34 and 49 yards. In addition, Miller has scored on a 42 yard run and Boyle on a 13 yard keeper.

With speedy halfbacks Tom Stade and Don Gobert lost for the season with serious leg injuries, Gary Larson has had to take over almost the entire ground duties for Coach Don Photenhauer's Gladstone Braves this season. The rugged senior halfback has responded by scoring six of Gladstone's seven touchdowns to date. His longest TD sprint was 35 yards, the shortest 2.

Another in the crop of fine flankers in U.P. prep grid ranks this fall is Manistique's Gary Sample. In spite of the fact that the Emeralds have lost four of their five games to date, Sample has been outstanding as a receiver. The 6 foot 2 inch, 183 pound end has hauled in four touchdown tosses on plays covering 117 yards.

Coch Tom O'Neill's Holy Name Crusaders boast one of the most diversified attacks in the region, with no less than six players contributing touchdowns in their 4-1 record thus far. Quarterback Dave Cannon has pitched payoff passes to Bob Brisco, Mike Dubord and John Way while Joe Young, Chris Young, Camen, Brisco and Dubord have tallied on runs from scrimmage. Brisco has scored on an interception and Dave Buckland has passed for a TD to Chris Young.

Soo's senior quarterback Dennis Bailey led two extra points through the uprisings to provide the margin of victory over Ishpeming, 14-12, in a Great Lakes Conference game last weekend. Bailey also pitched a touchdown pass to halfback Dave O'Gorman and set up Soo's other TD with a 45 yard completion to Herb Peterman.

Pat Gleason, basketball coach at National Mine for 31 years before stepping down in 1953, died at the age of 64 this week. His National Mine team won the Upper Peninsula Class D championship in 1929.

Montana Eleven Leads Grid List

By The Associated Press
Montana State, a 55-6 winner over Fresno State last Saturday, has moved into the runner-up position behind North Dakota State in the weekly Associated Press small-college football poll. Middle Tennessee State, Weber State and Tennessee State also gained ground in the rankings. North Dakota State, which beat South Dakota State 35-6 for its fourth straight victory, collected seven votes for first place and 136 points in the balloting by a national panel of 16 sports writers and broadcasters. Montana State was named the top team on five ballots and accumulated 112 points on a basis of 10 for a first place vote, 9 for second etc.

North Dakota slipped one place to third despite a 23-10 triumph over State College of Iowa. Sul Ross, a 16-13 victor over Southwest Texas, held the No. 4 spot. Middle Tennessee State, tied for 10th a week ago, zoomed to fifth after defeating Western Kentucky 33-9.

San Diego State, Eastern Kentucky, Wittenberg, Weber State and Tennessee State round out the top 16 in that order. The latter two teams were unranked last week.

The top ten with total points:

1. North Dakota St. 136
2. Montana St. 112
3. North Dakota 111
4. Sul Ross 75
5. Middle Tenn. 68
6. San Diego St. 67
7. E. Kentucky 54
8. Wittenberg 54
9. Weber State 34
10. Tenn. State 18

Sports In Brief
DALLAS (AP) — European welterweight champion Jean Josselin of Paris was named Wednesday as opponent for World Boxing Association champion Curtis Cokes in a title fight in Dallas Nov. 28.

RUSS SNYDER, center fielder for the Boston Orioles, makes a running catch that prevented the Dodgers from scoring a run in the second inning of the opening game of the World Series at Los Angeles Wednesday afternoon. Snyder tumbled after the catch but retained the ball for the putout. The long drive came off the bat of Johnny Roseboro. The Orioles scored a 3 to 2 victory in the opener behind a sensational relief pitching performance by Moe Drabowsky. (AP Wirephoto)

Drabowsky Is Hero In Relief

Baltimore Upsets Dodgers In First Game Of Series

LOS ANGELES (AP) — No one's written a poem about Baltimore's bullpen brigade, but pitching coach Harry Brecheen throws a pretty clever line of blank verse around. "We got 'em long and we got 'em short," Brecheen said. "And we got plenty of both." It's just possible that the Baltimore bullpen brigade has been the one factor measured incorrectly by the experts who tabbed the Los Angeles Dodgers as 8-5 favorites to win their second straight World Series. Moe Drabowsky, a 31-year-old part time stock broker who considered retiring before the season, came out of the Baltimore bullpen in the third inning he was a strong thrower as a youngster when he was with the Chicago Cubs. Then he had a sore arm. But it looked like he threw as good as he ever did. Drabowsky agreed but admitted he was close to retiring and becoming a full time stock broker when the Orioles drafted him from the St. Louis Cardinals last winter. "I suppose if Baltimore hadn't drafted me I might have retired," he said. "But when I had a chance to go with a club that could win the pennant, I changed my mind." The Orioles started off against the Dodgers the same way they won the American League pennant — with Frank Robinson

CLEAR SKIES
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Clear skies and a high of 80 degrees are expected as the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Baltimore Orioles square off for round two in the World Series today.

Wednesday and completely shackled the Dodgers while breaking one Series strikeout record and tying another in Baltimore's 5-2 victory.

Pitching Questioned
Ever since the Orioles have arrived in Los Angeles, Manager Hank Bauer and Brecheen have been pelted with questions suggesting the Orioles couldn't possibly win the Series because of their pitching.

All pointed to the fact that the entire Orioles' staff had completed only 23 games — to 27 for Dodger left-hander Sandy Koufax.

As game No. 1 started, Bauer dispatched one of the biggest bullpen crews in history down the right field line — sending every available pitcher to the bullpen with the exception of the starter, Dave McNally, and Jim Palmer, today's second game pitcher against the Dodgers' Koufax.

Bauer used it almost immediately, calling on Drabowsky in the third inning to protect a 4-1 lead built on consecutive first inning homers by the Robinson boys and Russ Snyder's key single in the second.

Bases Were Loaded
Drabowsky came on with the bases loaded and one out, struck out Wes Parker, walked Jim Gilliam to force in a run and then got John Roseboro to foul out.

That was it for the Dodgers. Drabowsky went on to strike out the next six batters in order and finished with 11 in all while allowing the Dodgers only a harmless seventh inning single by Willie Davis.

The six straight strikeouts tied the Series record set by

Dodgers Suffer When Eager Fan Grabs For Ball

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An over-eager baseball fan, probably a Dodger partisan, must wonder today if a careless act on his part might have played a part in the 5-2 defeat of the Los Angeles Dodgers by the Baltimore Orioles in the World Series opening game. Here was the setting: The Orioles had blasted off to a 3-0 lead in the first inning on a walk to Russ Snyder and left field home runs by the Robinson boys, Frank and Brooks. They added another in the second on a walk to Andy Etchebarren, who advanced to second on Dave McNally's sacrifice and scored on Snyder's long single to left.

But Jim Lefebvre opened the Dodger half of the second with a booming homer to left field. Wes Parker followed with a scorching drive that sliced first base and skidded deep into foul territory down the right field line.

A fan then reached out and grabbed for it. That made it an automatic double. It probably would have been a triple had it not been for the illegal interference.

It looked now as if the Dodgers were beginning to get at the Oriole starter, McNally, who promptly gave Jim Gilliam a base on balls.

John Roseboro lashed a sinking drive halfway between Snyder and Frank Robinson in right center. It looked like a sure double, but Snyder made a spectacular, one-handed diving catch. Dick Stuart, batting for Don Drysdale, drove deep to right center where Frank Robinson caught the ball on the running track.

If Parker had been on third where he should have been if he hadn't been for the fan who wanted to grab a souvenir ball, he would have scored and that would have made it 4-2, still a redeemable ball game. Maury Wills struck out to end the inning.

Probably nothing could have saved the Dodgers, however, unless McNally had been left in the box.

He went out, however, in the top of the third after issuing walks to Lou Johnson, Tommy Davis, and Lefebvre in succession.

Pass Defense Gets Workout
EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State's pass defense, which allowed Illinois to throw for 206 yards last week, worked on patching holes Wednesday before Michigan's Jack Clancy comes to town Saturday.

Clancy has caught 26 passes from U-M quarterback Dick Vidmer for 381 yards in three games. The job of covering him will go to MSU halfbacks: Jim Summers or Jerry Jones, depending on where Clancy lines up.

In passing situations, MSU often sends in backs Bob Super and Sterling Armstrong or Paul Lawson, in place of two linemen, to bolster the aerial defense.

The Menominee Maroons climbed into first place in the Great Northern Conference standings by handing Holy Name its first setback of the season last Saturday, 20-7.

Coach Ken Hoyer's gridirers will put their 3-0 conference record on the line at Iron Mountain Saturday. In the only other conference game this weekend Stephenson invades Kingsford Friday night with both teams seeking their first league triumphs.

Two Escanaba players vaulted into first place in the individual statistics released today by Ken Peterson of Escanaba. Quarterback Jim Boyle is the top passer in the circuit with 9 completions in 32 attempts good for 217 yards and four touchdowns. Holy Name's Dave Cannon has connected on 12 of 23 for 189 yards and four TDs.

Eskymo Paul Miller is the top receiver in the league with six catches good for 190 yards and four touchdowns. Mark Dougovito of Stephenson is second with 14 catches for 148 yards.

Miller also climbed into a tie

Drabowsky Fits Hero's Pattern

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Frank Robinson, who led the Baltimore Orioles in just about everything during the 1966 season — including clubhouse celebrating after the pennant was clinched — now is their top prognosticator. "You never know what's going to happen in a World Series," Robinson said before Wednesday's opening game. "Usually the little guy is the hero."

Moe Drabowsky fit the mold perfectly when he came out of the bullpen with one out in the third inning and struck out 11 while blanking the Los Angeles Dodgers on one hit the rest of the way.

Frank and Brooks Robinson — two well-publicized Orioles — smacked consecutive homers in the first inning for a 3-0 lead. But it was Drabowsky, a comparative unknown, who stole the show in the 5-2 victory.

Time and again, the relief specialists have come out of the bullpen to win or save games. Oriole pitchers hurled only 23 complete games.

Jim Palmer takes the mound for Baltimore in today's game against Sandy Koufax, and chances are the 20-year-old right-hander will need help before the game is over.

Wildness led to the early departure of starter Dave McNally Wednesday. Three of his five walks loaded the bases with one out in the third, and in came Drabowsky.

"I thought my fast ball was good, but I didn't have a chance to find out," McNally said. "The Dodgers didn't hit me exceptionally hard, but they didn't have to even swing."

Odds Favoring Dodgers, 10-6

LOS ANGELES (AP) — With Sandy Koufax slated to take the mound for the Los Angeles Dodgers Thursday, the odds favoring the Dodgers have increased.

Odds for the game are 10-6 for the Dodgers, slightly higher than the 7-5 odds offered in Wednesday's game.

with Tom Mayou of Menominee for the scoring lead with 30 points.

Holy Name's Bob Brisco continues to lead the conference runners with 302 yards in 61 carries while Mayou is second with 222 in 40 trips. Brisco is also the leading interceptor with three for 90 yards.

Moe Remembers Early Childhood In Poland

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Moe Drabowsky remembers how, when he was 3 years old, he sat next to a stream in the backyard of the family farm in Ozanna, Poland, catching fish with his bare hands.

The Los Angeles Dodgers remember how, many years later, Drabowsky stood out on the mound, striking them out with his rejuvenated right arm.

Drabowsky struck out 11 all told Wednesday as the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Dodgers 5-2 in the first game of the World Series.

The 11 strikeouts broke a series record and the six straight he recorded in the fourth and fifth innings tied one.

And the 31-year-old Drabowsky accomplished all that while limiting the favored Dodgers to one hit in 6-2 innings of relief and becoming the hero in the opening game.

Playing in a World Series, though, is a great distance from playing in a backyard in south-west Poland. Drabowsky was born in Ozanna in 1933 and left there three years later.

"I have some visions of my years there," he said between explaining how he stymied the Dodgers.

"I can remember the stream running through the backyard. I'd sit there and try to catch fish with my bare hands."

"When we first came over in 1938, I had a problem in school. My father couldn't speak English and my mother spoke only broken English. I couldn't speak English either and when I started school, I got bad grades."

"But with the advent of television, my father started picking up some English, and I started doing okay too."

"It's about time I got on the right side of a record," Drabowsky laughed. He referred to the fact that he gave up Stan Musial's 3,000th hit, allowed the winning hit in Early Wynn's 300th victory and once hit four batters in one game.

When he isn't running into negative records, or positive ones, or just pitching routinely, Drabowsky is a stock broker. He works in the off-season for a firm in Chicago.

Drysdale Due Again Sunday

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Don Drysdale was beaten in the first game of the World Series by the Baltimore Orioles, and today Sandy Koufax goes to the mound for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

That was the pitching rotation a year ago for the Dodgers against the Minnesota Twins.

"I hope it all turns out the same way," said the Dodger manager, Walter Alton, hurriedly adding, "only I hope we don't lose two in a row."

The two Dodger aces went down to defeat in the first two games at Minnesota-St. Paul 8-2 and 5-1 last year but Los Angeles came back to win the Series in seven games.

Home runs by Frank and Brooks Robinson rocked Drysdale for three runs in the first inning Wednesday.

Drysdale related that the Robinson boys hit high fast balls and he blamed himself.

"I just didn't put the ball where I wanted to. They're good hitters. Any good hitter is tough," the big fellow said.

Although Don pitched only two innings, Alton said he would not revise his pitching order. Claude Osteen goes at Baltimore Saturday in the opener of the three games there, with Drysdale Sunday.

Red Wings Bow To Black Hawks

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Detroit defenseman Gary Bergman prevented a shutout as Chicago defeated the Red Wings 5-1 Wednesday night in a National Hockey League exhibition game.

Bergman fired in the last goal of the contest, midway in the third period.

Black Hawks star Bobby Hull scored twice, his brother Dennis fired in one goal and Chico Maki and Kenney Wharram scored the others.

Pistons Spoil Cazzie's Return

YPSILANTI (AP) — The Detroit Pistons, paced by balanced scoring, beat the New York Knicks 100-97 in a National Basketball Association exhibition Wednesday night.

The Knicks' loss also spoiled the "homecoming" of former All-America Cazzie Russell to the virtual shadow of the University of Michigan at nearby Ann Arbor, where he starred during his collegiate career. Russell was held to nine points and four assists.

New York led 56-54 at the half, largely on a 16-point spurt by Dave Stallworth in the second period.

Player-coach Dave DeBusschere and Dorie Murreley led the Pistons to a 78-60 lead in the third period.

The Knicks cut the margin to 96 to 97 with a minute to go, but Reggie Hardin scored for Detroit to ice the victory.

Wilhite Hurts Shoulder Again

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan starting offensive end Clayton Wilhite suffered a second injury to his left shoulder in football practice Wednesday.

Wilhite, senior from Bay City, dislocated the shoulder for the second time in little more than a week, during a routine drill.

He will be lost to the Wolverines for their contest against arch-rival Michigan State on Saturday and for an indefinite period after that.

Warren Sipp, sophomore from Akron, Ohio, who replaced Wilhite in Michigan's loss to North Carolina last weekend, will start at the position. Royce Spencer of Chicago, a junior, is being groomed as backup player for the spot.

Golfing Greats Ready To Play

VIRGINIA WATER, England (AP) — Four of golf's greatest players — Nicklaus, Palmer, Casper and Player — appeared ready after exceptional practice rounds, but they had more than just the course to worry about today as the World Match Play Golf Tournament opened.

Sub-par golf doesn't always win in match play, which is man-to-man and often is won by the player with the most aces on a vital hole.

House Doubles Saving Insurance

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government insurance would cover bank and savings and loan accounts up to $20,000, instead of $10,000 as at present, under a measure approved by the House and sent to the Senate.

The House voted approval to include such a provision in a bank regulation bill already passed by the Senate.

Speeder Gives Up

JACKSON (AP)—William R. Hall told Jackson police after they had chased him several miles for speeding that he gave up because he was afraid his car was in too poor condition to continue.

Police said the car had no headlights, no fenders, no radiator, no windshield wipers, no working tail lights or brake lights, and no license plates.

Hall, 23, of Jackson was charged in court with doing 85 miles an hour in a 25-mile-an-hour zone. Police said he wasn't carrying a driver's license.

Urges Police Improve Image

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Describing "a nationwide trend in attitude designed to undermine law enforcement," Col. Fredrick Davids, Michigan State Police director, has urged policemen to improve their image.

In a speech prepared for a panel discussion during the convention of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, Davids said:

"Probably the greatest challenge that faces law enforcement today is the urgent need to improve the image of not only the individual police officer but that of the profession as a whole."

He said one answer is training programs which can be made available to police in even the smallest towns and townships.

"Disrespect for the law, defiance of authority on every level and a nationwide trend in attitude designed to undermine law enforcement are threatening not only our effectiveness but the whole structure of law and order," Davids said.
